Meeting Of YWCA Social Service Group Today

A meeting of the social service group of the YWCA will be held today in Room 14 at 12:20. All workers in the auto camps are asked to come and any others who are interested are welcome.

After a short business meeting Mrs. Teresa Hawk of the City Recreation department will speak on the different methods of recreation for playground use to cover children of all ages.

Mrs. Hawk has had wide experience in this field and will give a variety of suggestions for building recreation facilities out of a limited amount of material. Her suggestions will include ideas for out work as well as games.

Initiation Tonight

Spring initiation services of the YWCA will be held in Schofield hall tonight at 7 p.m.

All members who were not initiated last fall or have joined the organization since then will take part in the candlelight service.

This meeting which takes the place of the quarterly Association supper has been planned by Robert A. King. Alice Douglass is YWCA president.

Revelries Tickets

WILL GO ON SALE NEXT WEEK;
PLAN FAST-MOVING SHOW

Tickets for the annual Spartan Revelries will go on sale next week at the Controller's office, announced Neil Thomas yesterday.

TICKET PRICES

Tickets this year will be priced at 35 cents for general admission and 50 cents for reserved seats. No student body ticket will be necessary for purchase of the ducats. Tickets will also be placed with downtown stores for possible purchase.

With comedy being worked out in diligent fashion for the big show of the year, Director Jim Bailey, with his aides, has been planning a faster moving show than that of last year. The show will carry its master of ceremonies, but instead will have a number of small permission numbers between acts, a minute or so in length, which will take the interim between acts.

DANCE STAR

Mary Lou Hoffman, tap dance star of last year's "Hop, Skip and Cheer", will again dance a novelty routine in this year's show. A shortage of dancing stars this year became a worry to the director, and Hoffman's dancing will be most welcome, according to Bailey.

Happy LaBee, comedy man of the frosh class, and Bob Tremaine of the Speech department, have been recruited for some novelty skits which will give good comedy and farce to balance the rest of the program.

Costumes, designed by Ruth MacQuarrie, are nearing completion and should be on hand in a few days for rehearsals.

STUDENT COUNCIL PETITIONS ASKED

All students who intend to run for student council must hand in their petitions to Tom Hardiman in the president's office in the Student Union either from 8 to 10 or 3 to 4, today, tomorrow, or Monday.

Thursday, May 4, has been selected as the date for the annual nomination assembly of student council members.

The student body election for council members will be held on Monday, May 15, and the president and vice-president elections the following Friday.

Group Presents Broadcast Of Play Today

A broadcast of the radio play, "Skyscraper", will be given by the Radio Speaking society today at 12:30 in the Little Theater. All students are invited to attend and are requested to come on time so as not to interrupt the performance, according to Miss Margaret Douglas, speech instructor.

"Skyscraper" was written by Lawrence Holcomb of the NBC staff. It has been broadcast a number of times in the East and is known as one of the best examples of radio script technique.

SENIORS PLAN SNEAK WEEK AT MEETING

With the annual Sneak Week activities only a little over a week away, Chairman Keith Birlem will make a report on fourth-year plans. The date and scene of Sneak Day are expected to be leading points of discussion at today's meeting, Marsh stated.

Junior class members will have an opportunity to observe the workings of a well-organized body today by attending senior orientation at 11 o'clock in the Little Theater.

This was the statement made yesterday afternoon by Jack Marsh, fourth-year class president. "If the juniors want a glance at a well conducted meeting, let them drop in at the orientation hour. We're going to discuss Sneak Week plans also," Marsh remarked with a sly smile.

Rhodes Speaks

Dr. Robert Rhodes of the Science department, will speak before the Philosophy of Life group when they meet in the Y room today at five p.m.

Topic of the talk will be "Scientific Training and Life's Ideals".

Committee members in charge of these meetings are Agnes Rider, Stanley Stallings, and Katherine Sanford.

Clancy Writes First Play Of Current Season

'TROUBLE IN MY PRAYER' OFFERED IN LITTLE THEATER;
SEATS ON SALE

San Jose Players three-play spring quarter drama season opens tonight with the initial presentation of "Trouble in My Prayer" at 8:30 in the Little Theater, written and directed by Mr. James Clancy, San Jose State college speech instructor.

A few good seats are still available, at 25 cents to students and 50 cents to the faculty and general public, for both tonight and tomorrow night's performances.

TOWN SETTING

The scene is set in a small industrial town of a democratic nation organizing to go overseas to war. Though unwilling to do so, the individualist, "Arthur", around whose personality and ideas the play is built, enlists.

"Arthur", played by Clarence Cassell, finds he cannot live the regimented life forced upon the country under war conditions, and joins a revolutionary party, whose doctrines, however, turn out to be little different than those of the government in force.

Graduation Fees Payable Now

Graduation fees are now due and payable at the Controller's office, Neil Thomas announced today.

Fees not paid before Friday, June 2, will be delinquent. Early payment would be appreciated, Thomas suggested, in order that a last minute rush can be avoided.

Costumes Or Else!

CHI PI SIGMA, POLICE FRATERNITY
WILL ENFORCE RULE

"Costumes for Spardi Gras OR ELSE!"

That was the announcement made yesterday by Chairman George Place, as he released plans for the second annual Spardi Gras Jail to be run again by Chi Pi Sigma, police fraternity.

All students who are not in costume on the annual carnival day will be arrested by the fraternity and taken by the police to the "lockup" just outside the quad.

All students who are placed in the "jug" will have to pay a five cent fine, and then they will be given a costume consisting of a sack. All students who do not pay the fine will be kept in the jail for the remainder of the day.

Other plans for Spardi Gras include the gigantic dance in the tennis courts following Spartan Revelries.

Place announced that the Japanese club, Spartan Knights, and Spartan Spears will do all the decorating for the affair, carrying out an occidental oriental theme. The dance will start at ten o'clock and continue until one. Sheldon Taix and his band will provide music for the affair.

Free Doughnuts With Coffee At Breakfast Dance

There will be many different types of celebrations on the first of May, but none will be quite so different as the one planned by the Social Affairs committee under the direction of Steve Hosa for the student body of San Jose State college, to take place from 6:30 to 8:00 in the morning in the Women's gymnasium.

Featuring the music of Leonard Graye and his "Swingette", early risers on that morning will be treated to a buffet breakfast which includes two free doughnuts with each cup of coffee. The breakfast will be served by the Spartan Spears.

Floral decorations will carry out the "May Day" theme and will include a "genuine" may pole in the middle of the dance floor, according to Hosa.

Chairman Hosa suggests that campus organizations make up parties to attend the affair and also extends an invitation to all faculty members.

Editorially Speaking

♦ Let's Use The Spartan Pool

Bob Work

For some reason or another many people about the college who are uninformed as to some point of campus-information are of the opinion that within the confines of the Spartan Daily office lies the font of impeachable student intelligence.

Sometimes this situation leads to a slight and sometimes to a more or less acute embarrassment. There are times when the question asked bears on some campus problem that is really deserving of serious consideration.

As a matter of fact, various campus reforms have been instigated in just such a manner.

The question at hand for the moment; although it didn't impress us personally as being of any momentous value, was asked about in an interested and sincere manner. For that reason we offer it to you for what it is worth.

It was this: Now that the weather is getting continually warmer, why couldn't the Spartan swimming pool be opened on certain afternoons for recreational and mixed swimming?

At that, it might be an impetus for fewer "cut classes" resulting from Santa Cruz and Capitola excursions. It might even be met with considerable response, for, after all, the warmer the weather the more swimming-minded everyone becomes.

We might make this suggestion: If you think that it is a good idea, drop a line to the Thrust and Parry editor and let him know. If enough requests come in it is quite likely that Spartan guys and gals may be able to go for a swim in their own back yard and for a substantially smaller out-lay than it would take to shake off the summer humidity elsewhere.

—Bob Work.

FORMAL DANCES . .

create a need for formal clothes. With the Sophomore Hop coming up tomorrow night and the Senior Ball set for June 10, news on formals is definitely in line.

GO AS A GYPSY . .

One strikingly different cotton formal found in Hale's Ready-to-Wear department was styled in the traditional gypsy fashion. With a peasant neckline in the white Cloque organdy top, a full printed skirt, and bright red sash, this gown will make the males stop and turn around.

COTTON SHIRTMAKERS . .

In plaid seersucker, spun rayon, organdy and pique should interest you who are still undecided concerning what your spring formal is to be. One seen at Hales has embroidered organdy top, full black and white checked skirt of spun rayon, with a wide red leather belt to complete it.

A.P.O. FULL MOON DANCE . .

on May 27 will give you a chance to wear your favorite new spring outfit, or if you haven't got it yet, will urge you to start looking in your favorite shops. On the main floor at M. Blum & Co. are several dresses that should interest you.

ONE AND TWO-PIECE DRESSES . .

In a riot of spring colors such as Lime . . Chartreuse . . Japonica . . Powder Blue . . Violet . . Navy . . White with print . . Fuschia . . Dull Gold . . Dusty Pink . . and Aqua . . are offered for $6.95. They come in prints, solid colors, polka dot, and Alpine stripe.

STYLES . .

are mainly soft shirtmaker or slightly dressy types. Most of them have front fullness in the skirt—furnished by pleats or gores. They have contrasting leather belts, buttons and zippers in front, short sleeves, and small tailored collars.

Greener Pastures

By ELIZABETH MOODY

Students at the University of Texas celebrated Chancellor Hitler's fiftieth birthday last Thursday with an all-college anti-war demonstration.

University of Colorado is the latest to join the ranks of the National Intercollegiate Live Goldfish Eating Association. However, they report that the goldfish do not stay put. The victims, only slightly used, apparently healthy, are now living in a bowl in one of the university's sixteen co-op houses.

Communism would be the choice of 56 per cent of all American college students as opposed to 44 per cent for Fascism, according to a recent poll conducted by the Student Opinion Surveys of America.

Many students interviewed gave no choice at all. A Chicago student said, "As long as there is a choice between life and death, I won't have to choose between Fascism and Communism."

When professors start out to make their textbooks more interesting, almost anything may result.

University of Alabama's Dr. H. H. Chapman used these names to pep up his text on accounting: A. M. Day, P. M. Knight, U. B. Good, U. R. Looney, Heas Fitts, and I. M. Badd.

NOTICES

Will the following please meet me today at 12:45 in Room 11: Bill Abdullah, Wool, Fred Albright, Fortune Masdeo, Frank Bonanno, Bob Harrell, Ed Grant, and Mitch Ucovich. It is important that everyone attend.—Bob Swanson.

There will be an important meeting of the sophomore hop decorating committee today in Room 24 at 12:30. The meeting will last only about ten minutes so everyone please be prompt. Thanx.

—Frank Lovoi.

All members of Roos Bros. SpRoos Up committee must meet in the Spartan Daily office today at 12:45 to have their pictures taken.

Attention to all Kappas and D.T.O.ers! Meeting to be held at Bouret's, 1625 The Alameda. This includes the pledges.

A half-hour broadcast of the most outstanding talent in "Meet Mr. Mars", this year's Spartan Revelries, will be given over local radio station KQW the first of next week.

Tentative date and time of the radio show is set for Tuesday night at 7:30.

Original songs from the Revelries and a skit featuring Jim Bailey and Len Baskin will highlight the broadcast, presenting a sample of the tune-fol ditties and rib-tickling comedy that will sparkle in the Revelries on May 5.

Fordon Roth will act as announcer for the broadcast. Don't forget. Tune in Tuesday night and get a preview of "Meet Mr. Mars".

(CONTRIBUTORS' COLUMN)

Dear Thrust and Parry:

As long as there is going to be a beard contest why not have a real one? Why not have prizes for different styles of beard thickness, length, and color?

Other colleges do this, and they have a smaller enrollment than we have, so why can't we?

IMPORTANT! Revelries rehearsal today in Morris Dailey from 5:00 to 8:00. Be sure and come.

"Choke" of the Week

By IRENE MELTON

Speaking of embarrassing moments . . .

The afternoon history class stirred restlessly as Miss Tompkins, teacher in the Political Science department, walked into the room Monday afternoon.

Armed with a chin-high stack of blue books and wearing a determined look of one grimly determined to give an ex, the official pedagogue marched to the desk, deposited her notes, and turned to a nervously expectant audience.

TIME STAGGERS ON

The minutes ticked slowly by as Miss Tompkins began her lecture. Colorful events of the past paraded themselves before astonished and puzzled students. Rebellion reigned supreme on their countenances and over the room echoed and re-echoed whispers of "Hey . . . what the big idea?"

A climax occurred in the person of Dr. Earl Campbell, professor in the Political Science department. Striding into the room, the intruder glanced first at Miss Tompkins, then at the class, and back at Miss Tompkins again.

"I'm sorry, but this is my class," he murmured.

Guess whose most embarrassing moment it was . . .

Frosh Nine Ends Season In 5-3 Win Over Menlo

San Jose State freshmen put their suits in moth balls and hung up their spikes yesterday after defeating Menlo junior college 5 to 3 on the Menlo field.

THREE HITS

The San Jose freshmen did not fare so well at the plate, as Patterson, Menlo's starting mound ace, issued only three hits in the seven innings played.

The frosh secured five runs, all of which were unearned. Gurich walked in the first inning, and then stole second, third, and home for the first Spartan score. Johnson scored another in the second on Sanchez's single to right.

REYNOLDS BLASTED OUT

Bill Reynolds, southpaw artist, started on the mound for the Spartans. He held the Jaysee nine in check for six innings, before they solved his style. They reached him for four hits and three runs in the last inning before Coach McDonald sent in Tex Leverson to relieve Reynolds.

Leverson went in with one out and two men on the bases. He forced the next two batters to fly out, ending the game.

Sanchez led his teammates at the plate, getting two out of three hits Patterson allowed. Gurich was given credit for the other safety. Menlo reached Reynolds and Leverson for five hits.

Tex Leverson again proved the hero in the 5-3 win. Tex has pitched more than half the games on the schedule for the yearlings, and winning a good majority.

Frosh Spikemen Meet Hayward

A well-balanced Hayward high school track team will provide opposition for Coach Tiny Hartranft's frosh tomorrow afternoon on the Hayward field.

TYKOL LEADS

Freshmen, led by Captain Bill Tykol, sprinter, will be out after their second dual win, boasting only one victory thus far. They lost to a flashy San Jose high school outfit by three points.

Fast rounding into form, however, the frosh should take the Hayward into camp. Best news of the week from the local camp relates the return of Tom Sidell to the pole vaulting wars. Sidell, a thirteen-foot jumper, injured his ankle earlier in the season, but judging from the way he cleared 11 feet 6 inches Tuesday, is back in top form.

880 THREAT

His brother, John, looms an 880 threat, while possible double winners for State appear to be Tykol in the sprints and Wayne Rose in the hurdles.

VAUGHLAN LOOKS GOOD

A fast improving frosh high jumper is Leland Vaughlan. Vaughlan leaped 5 feet 10 inches Tuesday and appears capable of going an even six feet any day.

Spartan Netmen Enter Ojai Tennis Tourney

Seven top members of San Jose's tennis squad are competing in the big tournament at Ojai today, tomorrow, and Saturday, but Coach Erwin Blesh isn't very optimistic about the chances of his boys coming through with victory.

Those competing are John Krysiak, Victor Ehle, Ed Harper, Capt. George Egling, George Kifer, Ken Boscacci, and George Quetin.

J. C. DIVISION

Krysiak and Ehle will compete in the junior college division inasmuch as both are freshman competitors. Harper and Egling will have the biggest task of the lot when the pair enter the Intercollegiate doubles play.

Blesh has entered Harper and Kifer in the singles division of the Intercollegiate class, but there appears little chance of either man coming through with a victory.

DOUBLES TEAM

To George Quetin and Ken Boscacci go the job of competing in the men's open doubles. The two have been outstanding during the conference season.

Opponents in the Northern California Intercollegiate Conference have already conceded the league title to the Bishmen but another conference engagement remains to be played. This will be against Santa Clara next Tuesday. San Francisco State defaulted their scheduled match against the Spartans yesterday, extending the conference winning streak of the Bleshmen to 24 games.

NOTICES

Will all Ski club members please report to Room 13, at 12:30 today. Very important. We absolutely have to discuss plans for Spardi Gras.

W.A.A. board meeting today at 12:15 in the classroom. Please be prompt.

Strong San Jose Track Squad Enters PAA Meet

Coach Glenn "Tiny" Hartranft's Spartan cindermen take a crack at the big teams this Saturday at Berkeley when twelve local trackmen enter the annual Senior PAA championships.

Although last year's squad picked up 15 points to finish in fourth place, Hartranft's present squad stands a better chance of grabbing points. With three consecutive dual meet victories behind them the Spartans have reached a peak which should score points this Saturday.

Three men who tallied points last year will be wearing San Jose's colors again in competition against California, Stanford, and Olympic club entries as well as a large number of unattached contestants.

Lowell Todd, who won the javelin throw in the '38 meet, will be the only missing member of the quartet which scored points last season. Don Presley grabbed a second in the 56-pound weight throw and a third in the shot, while Captain Owen Collins finished fourth in the quarter mile last year. Charlie Bendeich took fourth in the broadjump to complete San Jose's scoring.

AQUA-SPARTANS FACE SAN MATEO J. C. HERE

San Mateo junior college and the San Jose State varsity will occupy the local tank in the only home meet for this week, tomorrow afternoon at 3:30. Saturday, the tankers travel to Davis for a swimfest with the California Aggies.

The San Mateo aggregation has a fairly strong team in spite of a defeat handed them by the Stanford frosh. Many of the junior collegians turned in creditable marks against the Cards and should make trouble for the locals.

In the 220-yard freestyle, Patty came in first against Stanford. He will probably give Captain Martin Wempe the stiffest competition he has had in the past few weeks.

50&100 Hopes

Parks and Ernest are the Jayceemen's hopes in the 50 and 100 yard freestyle events. The former finished second to a fast Stanford man.

Coach Charlie Walker will send Foster and Curlew in the breast-stroke event against San Mateo in an attempt to find needed strength in this event.

MEET MUSTANGS AGAIN

Next Week the locals will turn their aquatic attention to San Luis Obispo where they will face the Cal Poly Mustangs in a return meet.

The frosh paddlers, who had scheduled a meet with the Sequoia high school, cancelled the engagement, leaving them idle this weekend. Walker has a new breast-stroke recruit in Merit Crocker who reported for the Spartlet team this week and should be ready for duty on the freshmen's next outing.

Spartan Football Previews Before No-Pay Audience

By KEITH BIRLEM

Dividing the squad into three teams for tonight's game, Coach Dud DeGroot announced yesterday that three periods would see each of the units playing a fifteen minute game against each of the other two strings.

With the opening whistle scheduled to blow at seven-thirty this evening at Spartan Stadium, the novel game idea will get under way for the first time. The teams will be the Blues, Golds, and Reds, and were arbitrarily drawn from the roster and at the present time there is not a favorite.

WILSON

If this game idea is successful, Coach DeGroot will probably continue the Thursday night practice seances between these three teams for the remaining weeks of spring practice. Expressing that the night performance had a dual purpose, Dud explained that he both wanted to acquaint the Spartan fans with the latest numbers of his Golden Bombers and to also give all the actual game experience to his charges if possible.

Big Jim Wilson is the latest addition to the quarterback ranks, but in tonight's game will probably be under a considerable handicap because of his lack of knowledge of the new assignments. This move was necessitated by the latest injury sustained by the hard luck kid, Dave Titchenal. Dave is the fellow scheduled to hold down the upman role this season, but has run into his old jinx, injury, in the past couple of practices.

MANOOGIAN

Another change which will be noticeable to old Spartan followers will be the change of Morrie Manoogian to left-half and where he will have a better chance to use his ball packing ability. In his premier performance two years ago against Arizona State at Tempe as a safety man, Morrie returned a punt seventy-five yards for a touchdown. His seventy-five yard punt return average will probably be lessened somewhat in tonight's contest, but if he is up to his exhibitions of the last few weeks, he will be "bowling 'em over".

No admission will be charged, and the gates will be wide open to all comers.

Softball Tournament Race Resumes

With all teams in the intramural softball tournament hitting their stride, today's games will determine the strength of each entry in the tourney seeking the coveted title.

Still leading the pack are the powerful 1000 club, who are undefeated in current season competition. Close behind and within easy striking distance are the Darkhorses and Internationals.

Today the 1000 club finishes up with the Jugglers. The Internationals meet the Leftovers, while the Darkhorses tangle with the DTO's.

Johnson Hits Homer; APO Ties GPS, 10-10

With a booming last inning rally, Alpha Pi Omega fraternity scored five runs to tie Gamma Phi Sigma 10 to 10 in their inter-fraternity baseball game played yesterday.

Ben Johnson started the scoring off in the first inning when he connected with one of Ray Bruton's pitches for a home run.

The GPS's tied the game up in the first half of the last inning, but the APO's found Bruton for five runs and tied up the old ball game.

The tie will be played off Friday noon.

MANY VIE FOR ROLES IN BLUEBEARD; MEN'S GYM SETTING FOR AFFAIR

HIGHLIGHTS OF SHOW WILL INCLUDE WEDDING CEREMONY AND MAY POLE DANCE

Competition is keen for roles in "Bluebeard", part three of the annual swim Extravaganza to be presented in the Women's gym May 22 and 23, Miss Gail Tucker, swimming instructor, announced yesterday.

Principle roles to be given out include Bluebeard, the villain, posing as a young smoothie, the seven murdered wives, the prospective eighth bride, housekeeper, valet, the bride's three brothers, and the bride's mother.

The Extravaganza is divided into three parts, Part One, Jack and the Beanstalk; Part Two, Humpty Dumpty; and Part Three, Bluebeard. As yet no title has been decided on, but any suggestions will be welcomed and should be turned in to Miss Tucker immediately. Titles used in the past have been: "The Captive Moon", "Golden Moths", and "The Lorlei".

Highlights of the Bluebeard number will be the complete wedding ceremony and procession, climaxed by a maypole dance, which will all take place in the water.

Plans are developing rapidly for the scenery and sets, which include a gigantic drape curtain which covers the entire wall at the deep end of the pool. This curtain will be painted to give a sky and cloud effect. All action in the play will take place on a fifteen foot platform, six feet above the water at the deep end of the pool.

'Y' Groups Hold Joint Two-Day Conference, May

With its central theme, "Challenge to Loyalties", the annual spring YM and YW conference on May 20 and 21 will have Redwood Lodge in the Santa Cruz mountains as its setting.

The challenge to loyalties idea will consist in evaluating various political, economic, and social problems during discussion hours with three leaders.

Leaders who have been chosen by the conference committee include tentatively, Elizabeth Boydon Howes, Dr. Dillon Throckmorton, and Lou Wasserman. Mrs. Howes, a prominent leader at Camp Sierra, recently returned from Germany where she studied under Fritz Kunkel, eminent psychologist and author of several books.

Dr. Throckmorton from San Francisco is a stimulating discussion leader and has led groups similar to the one which will be present at the spring conference.

A popular leader at the Asilomar YW and YM conferences and Director of Adult Education is Lou Wasserman, who has been selected for one of the group discussions.

THREE O'CLOCK IS THE DEADLINE FOR NOTICES IN THE DAILY. FROM NOW ON, NONE WILL BE ACCEPTABLE AFTER THAT HOUR. —THE EDITOR.

Hobbies Entered In Clothing Store Contest

Several hobbies have been entered in the Leon Jacobs hobby contest since it was opened last Saturday with many more promised, announced George Place, Spartan Daily business manager and one of three judges of the contest, yesterday.

Prizes of 20, 10, and five dollars respectively will be given for the three entries judged best by the judges. There are no specifications as to the type of hobby entered. Collections, home-built models, or anything that answers as an avocation will be taken and put on display in the Jacobs store at 79 South First street.

According to Place, the entries will probably be judged with reference to their neatness and uniqueness. The contest will run until the end of the quarter but promptness is urged in placing any entries in the contest.

STATE GROUP LEADS SCOUT HIKE APRIL 29

Twelve members of the Camp Leadership class at San Jose State college will lead one hundred girl scouts from San Jose, Los Gatos, and Campbell on their first nature field trip to Alum Rock Park on Saturday, April 29.

CLASS MEMBERS

"We are trying to give these students practical experience in handling problems they will come

Plans Being Made To Organize Utah Club

An effort is being made to organize a campus "Utah club", according to Harriette Hemstreet, plan enthusiast.

According to Miss Hemstreet, following the recent debate with the University of Utah, it was discovered that there are several students attending school here who would be interested in such a club.

As a result, she said, a meeting of all former Utah residents will be held in Room 13 Friday at 12:30, at which time initial plans of organization will be discussed.

Miss Hemstreet said club activities would include mountain hiking and other typical Utah recreation, as well as participation in campus activities.

CANNING TALK TOMORROW

A description of the entire process involved in the canning of foods will be given by Mr. Carlton F. Sturdy, American Can representative, in an address tomorrow at one o'clock in Room S112.

Sponsored by the Science department, the talk is open to anyone interested in the subject, Dr. P. V. Peterson, head of the Science department, announced.

Mr. Sturdy, who devoted his entire time to speaking on requests before civic and other organizations, will answer any questions at the conclusion of his address.

Plans For Tryouts, Initiation Released By San Jose Players

Radio Speaking Play Tryouts Today At 4 P.M.

Tryouts for the next Radio Speaking society play, "I Do Solemnly Swear", will be held today in Room 159 at 4 o'clock.

The play was written by Miss Eileen Brown, Radio society member. Miss Brown will also direct the production and it will be broadcast by remote control in the Little Theater on May 12.

Theme of the play is a criticism of the legal profession. The roles of the two leading parts, a woman and a lawyer, offer particularly good parts for those who are interested in trying out for the play, according to Miss Brown.

ELEVEN NEW MEMBERS IN CHI PI SIGMA

Eleven new members will be taken into the ranks of Chi Pi Sigma, Police School fraternity, this evening when formal initiation will be held at the Hotel De Anza at 8 o'clock.

Following the initiation, new and old members will get together for dinner, according to Ed Grant, president.

Those who will become full-fledged members are: Bill Matheson, Tony Ciriscioli, August Kettman, Willard Schmidt, Bill Davenport, Rex Purcell, Vorhis Newstetter, Dan Paulsen, Howard Scribner, Floyd Kuehnis, and Elmer Smith.

FRESHMAN DANCE OFF; PLAN BOOTH

Calling off of the freshman dance and planning for a concession on Spardi Gras day were main items of the frosh meeting held yesterday, according to President Dave Atkinson.

Due to lack of spirit on the part of classmen, the dance, scheduled for May 20, was cancelled. Numerous other dances in May were also conflicting factors, Atkinson stated.

The freshmen will be in charge of the bingo concession during the annual eventful day. Various plans were made for this activity by the small amount of those present at yesterday's meeting, it was announced.

Important—All organizations that did not sign up for prizes for Spardi Gras yesterday may do so by seeing me today between 1:30 and 2:30 in Jack Hilton's office.

STUDENTS PLAN TRIP TO BEACH

Taking a joint field trip with students of Stanford University, students of the "Birds" class will journey to Moss Beach Saturday for an all-day trip.

Accompanied by Dr. Gayle Pickwell, instructor, the group will observe the various types of shore birds which have migrated there for the season.

Private cars will be used to furnish transportation for the trip.

"Kid" respectively. Harold Smith plays "Uncle Lawrie".

The performance of "Trouble in My Prayer" marks the fourth debut of a Clancy-written play here.

THREE STUDENTS ON SELECTION COMMITTEE

Plans for San Jose Players' spring tryouts and initiation were released yesterday by Mr. Hugh Gillis, head of the San Jose State college Drama department. Tryouts will be held May 9.

Eligibility rules for Players have been changed this year, said Mr. Gillis, making it necessary for applicants to have accumulated 15 or more points in two or more plays throughout the year and to give a two to five-minute dramatic selection of their own choosing before a committee of three faculty members and four student members of the organizations.

COMMITTEE

On the student tryout committee are Marie Carr, Patricia Ironsides, Henry Marshall, and Arthur Van Horn. The faculty committee consists of Mr. Gillis, Miss Margaret Douglas, and Mr. James Clancy.

Only about 20 students will be eligible, according to Mr. Gillis, and these will be notified of their eligibility soon. Students in the technical field may take a written examination from Mr. Wendell Johnson.

"Heretofore," said Mr. Gillis, "students went into Players simply for working in a few productions, and it was felt that the rules were in need for some change."

INITIATION

Following the tryouts, students passing will be initiated at the De Anza Hotel and will be guests of honor at a dinner at the hotel later.

The initiation ceremonies and dinner is to be followed by a James Clancy directed production of one of Shakespeare's shorter plays in the Little Theater at 8:30 o'clock. A reception will then be held in Room 53 and the hallways of the Speech wing.

Approximately 300 guests will be invited by San Jose Players to the play and reception, said Mr. Gillis, with attendance by invitation only. Dress for the entire affair will be semi-formal.

SOPH HOP

Included in the bid purchase price of $1.25 is a corsage of three gardenias, prepared by Arch-Cliff, campus florists, for the girl friend.

Swanson urges all campus dancers to get into the swing of spring by attending the semi-formal hop, destined to be one of the year's outstanding social successes.

"Jumpy Jitters", written by Gale Hunt for Spartan Revelries, will be previewed tomorrow night by Johnny night over KQW at 8:45. Gail Harbaugh will sing the number, accompanied by Emile Bouret on the piano, Bill Clark, bass, and Sheldon Taix, guitar.
